Silvana calm down. Quintin's anger will recede in due course if we don't feed it with your panic and fear. He will see the error of his ways in the course of time and settle down.

Turn off his access to the Outlook server and remove all our files from the Outlook server immediately lest he gets his hands on any of it. Cut him off at the pass.

He will soon find out that he can't do much without us or the information he needs. I am out with Elizabeth playing grandparents. Will call you later.
